Amounts not covered by the security deposit may be charged to the Tenant's student account. Not more than 31 days after termination of the tenancy, the Landlord will refund the balance of the security deposit, if any, to the Tenant's student account and provide a written accounting that states specifically the basis for any deductions. The security deposit is not the Tenant's maximum liability for breach of this Lease Agreement but is merely security the Tenant is required to provide. A list of general repair cost estimates for common household damages can be obtained from the Spencer View Service Center.
- 3.2 NON-PAYMENT: Unit offers are not complete and accepted without the security deposit, and students will not be permitted to obtain occupancy to the Unit until offer is accepted.
- 3.3 PAYMENT INFORMATION AND SCHEDULE: The Tenant agrees to pay the university in accordance with the rates and payment schedule as specified by the university. Lease rates are posted on the University Housing website: <https://apartments.uoregon.edu/pricing>. Lease rates are subject to annual increases. Lease rates are non-negotiable. If this application and Agreement are submitted prior to the Board of Trustees' annual approval, this Agreement's rates and fees are subject to change based on the rates and fees approved by the Board of Trustees.
 - ii. Dispute of Charges: In case of errors or questions, Tenants may challenge a charge within sixty (60) days after the first bill on which the suspected error or problem appeared by directing their questions to Student Billing at <https://ba.uoregon.edu/content/billing-account>.

Information, terms and conditions regarding the revolving charge program, and agreement and policy can be found at <https://ba.uoregon.edu/content/billing-account-terms-and-conditions>. These terms and conditions apply to residence hall payments as part of the terms and conditions of this contract, regardless of whether a Tenant has signed the university's revolving charge agreement. Unpaid balances are subject to a 9% interest rate per annum, beginning on the eleventh day of nonpayment, as well as a $6.00 monthly overdue billing charge. Unpaid charges may lead to removal from the Unit and other costs and charges for collection of the unpaid amount.

 - i. Except when prohibited under ORS 90.302(e) and 90.453(2), 90.472, or 90.475, if Tenant terminates this Agreement or vacates, or abandons the Unit after the start of their occupancy on July 1 and remains enrolled in classes at the University, Tenant agrees to pay a termination fee equal to one and one-half months' rent in addition to remaining rent and charges described in section 6.1.ii.2. - 6.4. COURT COSTS: In the event filing fees, service fees, or court costs are incurred by the University for a forcible entry and detainer action, these expenses will be added to the Tenant's student account and the Tenant will have an obligation to reimburse the University for these expenses unless an appropriate contrary order or final judgment is entered by the court.

7. HOUSING STANDARDS AND EXPECTATIONS

University Housing staff will, when appropriate, share this information with university officials to resolve the matter. This may include sharing the information with, if necessary, the University of Oregon Fire Marshal's Office and University of Oregon Police Department.

7.2 HOUSING EXPECTATIONS: University Housing's expectations serve to provide a safe environment conducive to sleep, study, and socializing. Violations may result in fines, removal from Family Housing and University Apartments, and other disciplinary action by University Housing and/ or the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards. To ensure Tenant awareness of these expectations, and for ease of reference, links to websites detailing these expectations can be found below. University Housing will also provide information regarding these standards upon Check-In. Tenant must comply with University Housing's required expectations, which include:

- i. The University Student Conduct Code (<https://studentlife.uoregon.edu/conduct>)
- ii. University Housing Standards found on this page (<https://housing.uoregon.edu/myhousing-resources>)
- iii. University policies (<https://policies.uoregon.edu>)

Any enforcement processes or procedural protections found in the Student Conduct Code and City of Eugene ordinances referenced in this Section 7.2 are not a part of or incorporated into this Agreement.

8. COMMUNICATION AND PUBLICATION

8.1. UNIVERSITY EMAIL: University students are assigned a university email account. This email is the official form of communication from the university to the Tenant. Tenants are required to check their email on a frequent and consistent basis to ensure receipt of important university communications. Use of university email account is governed by university policies, including the University's policy on the Use of Email for Official and Mass Communications, found at <https://policies.uoregon.edu/use-email-official-and-mass-communications>.

8.2. TEXT MESSAGING: University Housing may utilize text-messaging platforms to communicate with Tenants regarding important information. Tenants may opt-out of this communication through the application process.

8.3. RECEIPT OF MAIL: Mailboxes are assigned per Unit. All mail received for Tenant (and/or household members) will be placed in the Unit's assigned mailbox, or a designated parcel locker. Any mail and/or packages received after the Tenant has checked-out will be returned to sender (if applicable). Mail service may be interrupted or suspended during breaks between terms. Mailboxes or parcel lockers are official mailboxes of the U.S. Postal Service and subject to the laws applicable to the use of U.S. mail. Violations of U.S. postal regulations will be reported to the U.S. Postal Service, and the individual will be referred to the Student Conduct System. Tenants are required to check their mailboxes on a frequent and consistent basis to ensure receipt of important University communications.

9. COMMUNICABLE DISEASES, OR OTHER HEALTH RISKS

9.1. CONTRACT TERMS: The University may need to implement health and safety measures during the Lease Term. Below are some health and safety requirements that the University may implement. If any of the terms listed below conflict with other terms in this Agreement, the terms below control and supersede any conflicting terms. Landlord may issue an addendum to this Agreement adding, detailing, or changing requirements for Tenants related to health risks as a condition of living in housing facilities. Congregate living situations inherently involves an increased risk for infectious disease. University Housing works with University Health Services, University of Oregon, and Lane County Public Health to reduce risk but can never reduce risk to zero.

- i. University Health and Safety Regulations: Tenants must comply with the University's health risks regulations, as well as all public health laws, orders, rules, regulations, and guidance adopted by the University. Tenants must comply with these requirements in all locations in Family Housing and University Apartments. In addition to being required and enforced under this Agreement, the University's regulations are also enforced through procedures established by the University's Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards.
- ii. Prohibited Hazards: Tenants are prohibited from creating health or safety hazards in Family Housing and University Apartments, including, but not limited to, behavior that poses an unreasonable risk to the health and safety of university employees, Tenants, or guests.
- iii. Tenant Quarantine or Isolation: Certain infectious diseases will require isolation to reduce spread. Certain infectious diseases do not require isolation and in these circumstances, Tenants must follow recommendations/requirements to reduce spread to their close contacts (hygiene, masking, distancing, etc.). If the University experiences an infectious disease outbreak, various isolation plans may be required. This may include an isolate-in-place plan for certain infections, and under these circumstances, the infectious individual and their roommates may be asked to provide informed consent to remain in their Unit.
- iv. Dining Services: Dining services may be modified at the discretion of University Housing due to public health concerns. For example, University Housing may limit the occupancy of dining halls, limit the amount of time students may spend within dining halls, or make other operational adjustments as needed. University Housing meal plans may also be modified.
- v. Termination for Safety: Upon reasonable notice to Tenants and consultation with public health authorities, University Housing may terminate this Agreement to reduce health risks. Termination of this Agreement may be necessary to further reduce residential density, to expand emergency housing capacity, due to inability to find alternative housing for Tenants who need relocation, to close one or all the University Housing facilities, or to take other actions in the interest of public health and safety. If, at any time, the university closes Family Housing and University Apartments, and requires all Tenants to leave campus for the remainder of this Lease Term, Tenants will not be charged for the remaining, canceled portion of the Lease Term.

- vi. Remote Courses: The University, the State of Oregon, or a public health authority may decide, at any time, that education for the academic year will be provided either primarily or exclusively via remote instruction. This Agreement will remain in effect regardless of the University's mode of delivery of education.
- vii. Acknowledgment of Risks: Although Landlord is implementing health and safety measures to reduce the risks associated with communicable diseases, and other health risks within Family Housing and University Apartments, Landlord cannot eliminate the possibility of exposure to or infection with communicable diseases or other health risks.
 - 1. By signing this Agreement, the Tenant acknowledges the contagious nature of communicable diseases, and other potential health risks, and the risk of exposure to or infected with communicable diseases, or other health risks while living in Family Housing and University Apartments despite any health and safety measures Landlord could implement and that such exposure or infection may result in personal injury, illness, disability, or death.

10. DISCLOSURES AND PROVISIONS

- 10.1 ASBESTOS DISCLOSURE: Many apartment and housing units that were constructed prior to 1978 may contain building products that include asbestos. Asbestos was widely used in many building materials and may be present in small amounts in the sheetrock wall coatings. Asbestos has been identified as a potential health concern if it is not managed and maintained properly. Tenants should not install nails or screws, nor sand or grind the walls, nor use double-sided tape on the walls or ceilings in their Units, because this may release dust that may contain asbestos. Walls are inspected prior to Tenant arrival to ensure that they are in good repair and pose no hazard. Maintaining the walls in the condition they are in at check-in will ensure safety. Questions about asbestos or any potentially hazardous substances may be directed to University Housing.
- 10.2 LEAD DISCLOSURE: The University of Oregon manages a voluntary drinking water monitoring program for campus buildings, including housing units. The university regularly tests water fixtures commonly used for drinking and cooking, such as drinking fountains and dispensers, and sink faucets in bathrooms, break rooms, and kitchen prep areas. When levels of lead from these fixtures exceed EPA-recommended levels for schools and childcare facilities, the university removes those fixtures from use, provides Tenant alternative water sources, and makes repairs until tests are below EPA-recommended levels. Tenants will be notified throughout this process. More information is available on the university's drinking water monitoring program. <https://safety.uoregon.edu/drinking-water-monitoring>.
- 10.3 MOLD AND MILDEW DISCLOSURE: The University regularly inspects units for mold and mildew prior to occupancy of spaces; however, mold and mildew spores are present throughout the natural environment and cannot be entirely eliminated. Many sources of excess moisture can lead to high indoor humidity and cause mold, mildew, or other fungal growth. Tenant agrees to take the appropriate steps to prevent mold, mildew, and other fungi from growing in their space. If the Tenant's conduct results in excess humidity or moisture, the Tenant agrees to regularly maintain their space in a manner that will reduce the likelihood of mold, mildew, or fungi from growing. Some examples include:
 - i. Clean bathroom, kitchen, and other surfaces and walls with products that inhibit growth of mold, mildew, or other fungi.
 - ii. Clean and dry any visible moisture on windows, walls, and other surfaces including personal property as soon as the condition occurs.
 - iii. Use bathroom fans while bathing or showering, kitchen fans while cooking, and other fans when water is in use. Continue using the fan for 30 minutes after the activity concludes.
 - iv. Report any issues with bathroom or kitchen fans in a Fix It request immediately.
 - v. Take steps to prevent water from entering the unit such as closing windows while raining.
 - vi. Open windows during dry times to allow cross ventilation to occur.
 - vii. Submit a Fix It request immediately if mold, mildew, or fungi is noticed and cannot be removed by products intended to inhibit growth of mold, mildew, and fungi.
- 10.4 GOOD FAITH: Every duty and every act that must be performed under this Lease Agreement imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance or enforcement.
- 10.5 LIMITATION OF DAMAGES: In no event, including negligence or strict liability, shall the University of Oregon be liable for: (1) damages that exceed the amount paid by the Tenant under this Agreement; or (2) incidental, consequential or indirect damages.
- 10.6 CONTROLLING TERMS: If any part of this Agreement conflicts with applicable law or University policy, such law or policy supersedes the terms of this Agreement. If any part of this Agreement conflicts with University Housing rules or procedures, the terms of this Agreement supersede such rules or procedures.
- 10.7 GOVERNING LAW: This Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Oregon without resort to any other jurisdiction's conflict of laws, rules, or doctrines. Any dispute, claim, action, or suit between the University and Tenant arising out of or related to this agreement shall be governed by Oregon law and shall be litigated in Lane County Oregon. Tenant consents to personal jurisdiction in Oregon.
- 10.8 ENFORCEABILITY: If any portion of this contract is deemed void, illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions of this contract shall remain valid and enforceable.
- 10.9 ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Agreement and the addenda, laws, rules, policies, and documents referenced or included herein are the entire Agreement between the parties. No amendments or additional or differing terms thereto are binding unless in writing and signed by both parties.

11. TENANT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- 11.1. The terms and conditions of this Agreement are subject to the Landlord's and Tenant's rights and obligations described in ORS chapter 90. To the extent that any term or condition of this Agreement conflicts with an applicable requirement of ORS chapter 90, the applicable requirements of ORS chapter 90, or as applicable, any municipal ordinances or requirements of the Landlord-Tenant relationship, control and supersede this Agreement.

- 11.2. REASONABLE PRIVACY AND ACCESS: Tenants have a right to reasonable privacy and are protected against unreasonable searches of their Unit. University Housing staff may enter a Tenant's Unit without notice in emergencies where imminent danger to life, safety, health, or property is reasonably feared. Landlord must give at least a 24-hour notice before entering the Unit and then may only enter at reasonable times and in a reasonable manner. Landlord will not abuse the right of access nor use it to harass. Maintenance (Fix It) requests initiated by the Tenant constitute permission to enter the Tenant's Unit to perform needed maintenance in that Unit.
- 11.3. TENANT LIABILITY: Tenant will reasonably care for the Unit, furnishings, appliances, and fixtures; maintain sanitary and safe conditions acceptable to the Landlord; and abide by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 11.4. DAMAGES: Tenant will be liable for actual charges for cleaning, repair of damage, abatement of explosive, volatile, or hazardous substances and conditions owned or controlled by Tenants, or other loss, other than ordinary wear and tear, incurred to the Unit, Common Areas, furnishings, appliances, and fixtures (hereafter referred to collectively as "Damage") caused by Tenants or their guests':
- i. acts or omissions; or
 - ii. failure to abide by the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Tenant agrees to pay such damages to the University upon demand.
- 11.5. PETITIONS: Tenants have the right to petition for a waiver of all or part of their obligations under this Agreement in the event of exceptional circumstances. Petitions are available online at <http://housing.uoregon.edu/myhousing>. Landlord will only consider a petition if the Tenant's University Housing account is current and in good standing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord's consent to waive any obligation is discretionary. Petition decisions are final. Charges because of fire and safety infractions may not be petitioned.

12. LANDLORD RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- 12.1. SERVICES: Landlord will keep the premises in a fit and habitable condition in compliance with applicable state, county, and municipal laws and regulations. Landlord will provide services, including, but not limited to:

Landlord is not responsible for and will not allow cancellation of this Agreement or reduced fees for, construction noise or disruptions associated with construction, maintenance, and service vehicles within or adjacent to Family Housing and University Apartment facilities.

- 12.4. PERSONAL PROPERTY LIABILITY: Landlord is not liable for theft, loss or damage to personal property belonging to Tenants or guests in Unit, including grounds associated with unit (yard, balconies/porches, patios, etc), public areas, laundry, or elsewhere; unless loss or damage is caused by the willful misconduct or gross negligence of Landlord. It is the Tenants' responsibility to keep their Units locked at all times. Landlord's liability is subject to the limitations and conditions of the Oregon Tort Claims Act and the Oregon Constitution.
- 12.5. MANDATORY REPORTERS: All University Housing employees, including student leaders and staff, are mandated reporters of child abuse.
