This requirement extends beyond your initial agreement to this contract. You must immediately disclose to University Housing any later conviction of a sex crime, determination to be a sex offender, or requirement to register as a sex offender that occurs after agreeing to this contract. You are not required to disclose any conviction in Oregon that has been set aside under ORS 137.225 or any conviction in any other jurisdiction that has been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction.

If a Resident terminates this contract, the Resident must complete Check-Out as outlined in Section Error! Reference source not found. within thirty (30) days of contract termination. If the reason for terminating the contract is that the Resident has withdrawn from the University, then the Resident must complete Check-Out as outlined in Section 10.1 within thirty (30) days of withdrawal from the University. Residents who terminate this contract will remain subject to this contract and be charged for housing through the date of Check-Out, regardless of their date of departure from NE 27th Apartments. This fee also applies to the University's termination of this contract due to Student default as described below. The Student and the University acknowledge that, if the Student's application and contract are cancelled, including termination by the University in the event of Student default, (1) the amount of the University's losses or damages likely to be incurred is difficult to precisely estimate, and (2) the termination fee bears a reasonable relationship to the losses likely to be incurred.

A NE 27th Apartments applicant or Resident may terminate their contract if they did not attend classes at the University.

9.4. TERMINATION FEE WAIVER REQUEST

If a Student subject to the contract termination fee petitions for a waiver of the fee, the University may, in its sole discretion, waive the fee and terminate the contract under extraordinary circumstances. The student must submit a Petition on My Housing (<https://housing.uoregon.edu/myhousing>) including a written statement demonstrating extraordinary circumstances accompanied by supporting documentation. If the University waives the fee, the student will remain responsible for paying prorated housing charges, if any, incurred from the date the Student Checked-In until cancellation. When determining whether to grant a waiver, the University considers all facts and circumstances, including, but not limited to whether the student:

- failed to register or cancelled registration for classes;
- withdrew or was dismissed for non-disciplinary academic reasons;
- completed their academic program and graduated;
- is participating in a University-operated educational leave program (such as study abroad);

In the event that a Resident is unable to retrieve their belongings and complete the Check-Out procedures, the student or their notarized personal representative may complete a Check-Out designee form. Student is responsible for the full cost of removing and shipping or disposing of their belongings and cleaning the bedroom and Unit.

10.2. FAILURE TO CHECK-OUT

University Housing will charge Residents the full housing rates until Check-Out procedures are completed. If a Resident fails to complete Check-Out, University Housing may charge additional fees to change the bedroom and Unit lock/access and for improper Check-Out.

11.2. EFFECT OF DEFAULT

In the event of Resident's default, the University may use any remedy allowed at law or equity. This includes, but is not limited to, reassignment to a new bedroom or Unit, fees, termination of this contract, removal of the Resident from NE 27th Apartments, and restrictions on the right to register for courses.

11.3. TERMINATION

The University will give the student at least three days' (72 hours) notice prior to termination of this contract ("Termination Notice"). The Termination Notice will state the basis for termination and the date of termination ("Termination Date"). The Student may contest the Termination Notice by responding to it with the reasons why termination is not appropriate within 24 hours of receiving the Termination Notice. If the University determines Termination is still appropriate after reviewing any information presented by the Resident, the University will notify the Resident who must cease residing in University Housing facilities and remove all of Resident's property on or before the Termination Date.

11.4. OTHER CIRCUMSTANCES TRIGGERING REMEDIES

Although Resident may not be in violation of the terms of this contract, if Resident poses a health or safety risk to themselves or if interim measures or sanctions required by the Student Conduct office or others or require, the University may immediately terminate this contract, assign the Resident to a new Unit, or take other actions as necessary.

11.5. LIABILITY

University Housing is not liable for loss, theft or damage to personal property in resident Units, public areas, laundry, storage rooms, or elsewhere. Residents agree to pay for any damages to University Housing building, bedrooms, finishes, fixtures, equipment, furniture, Units, appliances, caused by the Resident or the Resident's guests, except ordinary wear and tear. Residents are responsible for paying for damages to the building and for damaged or missing furniture or equipment. Residents are to be jointly and severally liable for any damages that occur within Unit and common areas. If damage in common areas within NE 27th Apartments cannot be traced to a specific individual or group but was in substantial part caused by individuals, groups, or guests acting from within NE 27th Apartments, the residents of NE 27th Apartments will be charged collectively. This is referred to as the "group damages" charge on university billing statements. It is the Residents' responsibility to keep their Units locked at all times. Residents are highly encouraged to purchase private insurance to protect their personal property against loss.

12. DISCLOSURES

12.1. ASBESTOS DISCLOSURE

Many apartment and housing units that were constructed prior to 1978 may contain building products that include asbestos. Asbestos was widely used in many building materials and may be present in small amounts in the sheetrock wall coatings. Asbestos has been identified as a potential health concern if it is not managed and maintained properly. Residents should not install nails or screws, nor sand or grind the walls, nor use double-sided tape on the walls or ceilings in their Units because this may release dust that may contain asbestos. Walls are inspected prior to resident arrival to ensure that they are in good repair and pose no hazard. Maintaining the walls in the condition they are in at resident Check-In will ensure safety. Questions about lead, asbestos or any potentially hazardous substances may be directed to the University Housing.

13. MISCELLANEOUS

13.1. PETITIONS

Amendments to the contract may be requested by petition only. Petition forms are available online at My Housing (<http://housing.uoregon.edu/myhousing>). Petitions are reviewed on an individual basis based on personal circumstances. Amendments granted to one provision of this contract shall not be construed as a waiver of any other provision. The final determination on such petitions is at the discretion of University Housing. Except as provided for in this agreement, no other amendments or modifications to this contract are allowed.

13.2. APPLICABLE LAW

This contract is governed by and shall be construed in accordance with the laws in the State of Oregon, without resort to any other jurisdiction's conflict of laws, rules, or doctrines. Any claim, action, or suit between the University and Resident that arises out of or relates to this contract shall be brought and conducted solely and exclusively within Lane County Circuit Court for the State of Oregon. Resident consents to personal jurisdiction in Oregon.

13.3. SEVERABILITY

The invalidity, illegality, or enforceability of any provision of this contract shall not affect the validity, legality, or enforceability of any other provision of this contract, which shall remain in full force and effect and shall be liberally construed in order to effectuate the purpose and intent of this contract.

13.4. LIMITATION OF DAMAGES AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROVISIONS

In no event, including negligence or strict liability, shall the University be liable for: (1) damages that exceed the amount paid by Resident under this contract; or (2) incidental, consequential, or indirect damages. These fees include, but are not limited to, fees incurred on appeal, expert fees, and deposition transcript fees.

13.5. BILLING RIGHTS

In case of billing errors or questions, a resident may challenge a charge within sixty days after the first bill on which the suspected error or problem appeared by directing their concerns to the Student Billing department of the Business Affairs Office (541-346-3170; <https://ba.uoregon.edu/content/billing-account>).

13.6. CONTROLLING TERMS

If any part of this contract conflicts with applicable law or University policy, such law or policy supersedes the terms of this contract. If any part of this contract conflicts with University Housing rules or procedures, the terms of this contract supersede such rules or procedures.

13.7. SURVIVAL

If any portion of this contract is deemed void, illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions of this contract shall remain valid and enforceable.

14. CONTRACT TERMS DUE COMMUNICABLE DISEASES, OR OTHER HEALTH RISKS

The University may need to implement health and safety measures for the academic year.

Below are some health and safety requirements that the University may implement. If any of the terms listed below conflict with other terms in this contract, the terms below control and supersede any conflicting terms. University Housing may issue an addendum to this contract adding, detailing, or changing requirements for Residents related to health risks as a condition of living in the NE 27th Apartments.

Congregate living situations inherently involves an increased risk for infectious disease. University Housing works with University Health Services, University of Oregon, and Oregon Health Authority to reduce risk but can never reduce risk to zero.

University Health and Safety Regulations. Residents must comply with the University's health risks regulations, as well as all public health laws, orders, rules, regulations, and guidance adopted by the University. Residents must comply with these requirements in all locations in the NE 27th Apartments. In addition to being required and enforced under this contract, the University's regulations are also enforced through procedures established by the University's Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards.

Prohibited Hazards. Residents are prohibited from creating health or safety hazards in the NE 27th Apartment, including, but not limited to, behavior that poses an unreasonable risk to the health and safety of university employees, Residents, or guests.

Resident Quarantine or Isolation. Certain infectious diseases will require isolation to reduce spread. Certain infectious diseases do not require isolation and in these circumstances, Residents must follow recommendations/requirements to reduce spread to their roommates and close contacts (hygiene, masking, distancing, etc.). If the University experiences an infectious disease outbreak, various isolation plans may be required. This may include an isolate-in-place plan for certain infections, and under these circumstances, the infectious individual and the others in their Unit may be asked to provide informed consent to remain in the Unit.

Termination for Safety. Upon reasonable notice to Residents and consultation with public health authorities, University Housing may terminate Residents' NE 27th Apartment contracts to reduce health risks. Termination of contracts may be necessary to further reduce residential density in the NE 27th Apartments, to expand emergency housing capacity, due to inability to find alternative housing for Residents who need relocation, to close one or all of the Apartments, or to take other actions in the interest of public health and safety. If, at any time, the University closes the NE 27th Apartments and requires all Residents to leave campus for the remainder of the academic year, Residents will not be charged for the remaining, canceled portion of the NE 27th Apartments contract period.

Remote Courses. The University, the State of Oregon, or a public health authority may decide, at any time, that education for the academic year will be provided either primarily or exclusively via remote instruction. This contract will remain in effect regardless of the University's mode of delivery of education.

Acknowledgment of Risks

Although University Housing is implementing health and safety measures to reduce the risks associated with communicable diseases, and other health risks within the NE 27th Apartments, University Housing cannot eliminate the possibility of exposure to or infection with communicable diseases or other health risks.

By signing this contract, you acknowledge the contagious nature of communicable diseases, and other potential health risks and the risk that you may be exposed to or infected with communicable diseases, or other health risks while living in the NE 27th Apartments despite any health and safety measures University Housing could implement and that such exposure or infection may result in personal injury, illness, disability, or death.
