TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By signing the signature page of this contract, you, the undersigned (“Resident”), agree to the terms and conditions of this University Housing Portland Contract (“contract”). This is not a lease. Neither this contract nor your occupancy of space in University Housing is subject to the “Oregon Residential Landlord and Tenant Act.” This contract is for a unit (“Unit”) in the NE 27th or Holman Apartments (“Apartment” and “Apartments”) in University Housing and creates no right to occupy a particular Unit in a particular location or building. This contract obligates the University of Oregon to provide you with housing only as set forth in this contract. This agreement is solely between Resident and the University and is nontransferable. All portions of University Housing’s Apartments remain under the exclusive ownership and control of the University of Oregon. The University of Oregon and those acting on its behalf or at its request may, when warranted, remove any person from the Apartments without resort to the procedures set forth in ORS 105.105 through 105.168. Such procedures are expressly, knowingly, and voluntarily waived by execution of this contract. This contract is nontransferable and may not be assigned, subleased, or delegated to any third party.

This contract may be signed electronically by the Resident if they are 18 years of age or older without a parent’s or guardian’s signature. If the Resident is under 18 years of age, a parent’s or guardian’s signature is required.

False information provided in the application may be grounds for reassignment within, or removal from, University Housing.

CONTRACT TERM

Please check preferences. Start and End dates will be assigned based upon availability.

Resident understands that the starting date of this contract “Start Date” begins on the assigned Start Date, which may be different from the Resident’s move-in date “Move-In Date”. Resident’s Move-In Date is determined as the date the student has indicated they will move in. If a Resident’s Move-In Date is before the Start Date of this contract, the Start Date is modified to the Move-In Date. Residents are responsible for paying for damages to the building and for damaged or missing furniture or equipment. Residents are to be jointly and severally liable for any damages that occur within Unit and common areas. If damage in common areas within the Apartments cannot be traced to a specific individual or group but was in substantial part caused by individuals, groups, or guests acting from within the Apartments, the residents of the Apartments will be charged collectively. This is referred to as the "group damages" charge on university billing statements. It is the Residents' responsibility to keep their Units locked at all times. Residents are highly encouraged to purchase private insurance to protect their personal property against loss.

12. DISCLOSURES

12.1. ASBESTOS DISCLOSURE
Many apartment and housing units that were constructed prior to 1978 may contain building products that include asbestos. Asbestos was widely used in many building materials and may be present in small amounts in the sheetrock wall coatings. Asbestos has been identified as a potential health concern if it is not managed and maintained properly. Residents should not install nails or screws, nor sand or grind the walls, nor use double-sided tape on the walls or ceilings in their Units because this may release dust that may contain asbestos. Walls are inspected prior to resident arrival to ensure that they are in good repair and pose no hazard. Maintaining the walls in the condition they are in at resident Check-In will ensure safety. Questions about lead, asbestos or any potentially hazardous substances may be directed to the University Housing.

13. MISCELLANEOUS
14. CONTRACT TERMS DUE COMMUNICABLE DISEASES, OR OTHER HEALTH RISKS

The University may need to implement health and safety measures for the academic year.

Below are some health and safety requirements that the University may implement. If any of the terms listed below conflict with other terms in this contract, the terms below control and supersede any conflicting terms. University Housing may issue an addendum to this contract adding, detailing, or changing requirements for Residents related to health risks as a condition of other terms in this contract, the terms below control and supersede any conflicting terms. University Housing may issue an addendum to this contract adding, detailing, or changing requirements for Residents related to health risks as a condition of other terms in this contract, the terms below control and supersede any conflicting terms.

University Health and Safety Regulations. Residents must comply with the University’s health risks regulations, as well as all public health laws, orders, rules, regulations, and guidance adopted by the University. Residents must comply with these requirements in all locations in the Apartments. In addition to being required and enforced under this contract, the University’s regulations are also enforced through procedures established by the University’s Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards.

Prohibited Hazards. Residents are prohibited from creating health or safety hazards in the Apartments, including, but not limited to, behavior that poses an unreasonable risk to the health and safety of university employees, Residents, or guests.

Resident Quarantine or Isolation. Certain infectious diseases will require isolation to reduce spread. Certain infectious diseases do not require isolation and in these circumstances, Residents must follow recommendations/requirements to reduce spread to their roommates and close contacts (hygiene, masking, distancing, etc.). If the University experiences an infectious disease outbreak, various isolation plans may be required. This may include an isolate-in-place plan for certain infections, and under these circumstances, the infectious individual and the others in their Unit may be asked to provide informed consent to remain in the Unit.

Termination for Safety. Upon reasonable notice to Residents and consultation with public health authorities, University Housing may terminate Residents’ Apartment contracts to reduce health risks. Termination of contracts may be necessary to further reduce residential density in the Apartments, to expand emergency housing capacity, due to inability to find alternative housing for Residents who need relocation, to close one or all of the Apartments, or to take other actions in the interest of public health and safety. If, at any time, the University closes the Apartments and requires all Residents to leave campus for the remainder of the academic year, Residents will not be charged for the remaining, canceled portion of the Apartments contract period.

Remote Courses. The University, the State of Oregon, or a public health authority may decide, at any time, that education for the academic year will be provided either primarily or exclusively via remote instruction. This contract will remain in effect regardless of the University’s mode of delivery of education.

Acknowledgment of Risks

Although University Housing is implementing health and safety measures to reduce the risks associated with communicable diseases, and other health risks within the Apartments, University Housing cannot eliminate the possibility of exposure to or infection with communicable diseases or other health risks.

By signing this contract, you acknowledge the contagious nature of communicable diseases, and other potential health risks and the risk that you may be exposed to or infected with communicable diseases, or other health risks while living in the Apartments despite any health and safety measures University Housing could implement and that such exposure or infection may result in personal injury, illness, disability, or death.
